

A GOOD CAWS: A Hall of Fame Handbook

Who belongs in baseball's Hall of Fame? That is, which players have EARNED the right to be there? This book answers that question, and tells you precisely how good a career the player had compared to the other great players. For example, at the end of the 2010 season, Derek Jeter was the #6 best shortstop of the modern era (since 1920) and the #54 best player among ALL position players of that period. Dr. Michael Hoban is a retired university professor. He earned his Ph.D. in mathematics from Columbia University, and has been a fan of the game for more than 60 years. The professor has been a serious baseball analyst since 1998 when he joined SABR (Society for American Baseball Research). This is his fourth book on baseball.
