

Washoe Seasons of Life: A Native American Story (Navaho Edition)

Washoe Seasons of Life: A Native American Story is a child's-eye view of a Native American girl, her friends and family as they work and play. Journey with Mele as she helps gather pine nuts for the winter months, joins the rabbit drive, listens to her grandfathers stories, plays with her friends and performs the daily chores common to the Carson Valley Washoe tribe. An entertaining read for children ages 7 to 11, Washoe Seasons of Life celebrates the tribes unique language with sidebars containing key Washoe words related to the story. A glossary and pronunciation key, written with the assistance of Washoe language expert and University of Nevada, Reno professor emeritus William H. Jacobsen, Jr., are provided at the back of the book to assist inquisitive young readers, parents and teachers
