

Defined by Death

True stories of visions of deceased loved ones, a Holy Spirit revelation, and divine occurrences from a Christian woman. After suffering the loss of her grandmother, Jennifer Bartholomew, a wife, mother and registered nurse began to experience the supernatural. As a child plagued with night terrors and rare spiritual experiences she was unaware of a legacy that was hers by divine right. She was brought to a cross road in her life when God revealed the spiritual realm to her at the age of 30. The secular world would call Jennifer a psychic medium, while the world of religion may consider her a mystic or a prophet. In the depths of grief, she found herself willing to let go of the titles and let God navigate her into the unknown. Get a glimpse into the spiritual world known as heaven. In Defined by Death, she shares her amazing discovery of life beyond death that will inspire your own spiritual growth and stretch your soul. Prepare to be captivated by her accounts of pain, faith and belief. Be challenged to discover how God communicates with each of us individually through the use of the spiritual realm. Heaven is a real place. This woman's spiritual journey inspired her to have a deeper relationship with God. She was defined by death.
