

Remedies in International Sales

This is the first text that compares remedies for non-performance of international sales contracts from the perspectives of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, the UNIDROIT Principles, the Principles of European Contract Law, and case law from courts and arbitral tribunals of many countries. It includes extensive discussion of arbitral awards from China, which is home to the busiest arbitral tribunals in the world. In gathering together these materials, Mr. Liu's text promotes uniformity in the application of international sales law.
