

Elephant Shoes

An elephant named Morgan and his friend Lenny love to play in the sun and sip ice cold lemonade. One day, a particularly energetic game of badminton gets them a little too sweaty, so they pack in the fun and go home to sip their lemonade and lie in the shade. But suddenly, Morgan realizes he lost his shoes! Morgan and his friend Lenny go on a quest to find the missing runners. Along the way, they gather clues, play games, problem solve and make new friends. In addition to helping Morgan find his shoes, readers can search for objects, bugs, birds and small animals on each page of this book.
