

The Devil Rules Our World God Is About To Depose Him (Consciousness Series Book 4)

God planted a Spiritual being with the consciousness of God in our right brain at birth to help pull us into our higher consciousness by teaching us the word of God. Our mind is possessive and blocks us from being aware of the Spiritual being in our right brain, keeping us locked down into our lower consciousness. Our mind houses our imagination, a powerful tool that allows us to become aware of ourselves. Its through our imagination we are able to perceive ourselves in the world. We imagine ourselves walking down the street, in our house, in our town, in our country, in our Universe. We can imagine ourselves in the past, in the future, and in the present. Its from our Imagination our creativity comes. Our mind with its powerful imagination could be our greatest asset. It has become our greatest danger. We have the power to imagine that we are being good without having to really be good. Im not as bad as I could be, therefore Im good. This faulty reasoning has the effect of removing us from reality, and if we do it in unison even more so. For example we all believe that to be good all we have to do is be moral; I never murdered anybody so Im good. Being good is Love, love is giving and kindness. Of course you have to be moral, but being moral is a prerequisite to love. Love is way more active than morals. Emotions are our animating force. Emotions of love are emotions of goodwill. Loving emotions like compassion, caring, giving, and kindness come from or exude goodwill. Emotions of hate come from selfishness. When our only concern is for ourselves it breeds hateful emotions. From selfishness comes fear, like with children, from our immaturity. From fear comes greed and lust, jealousy, envy, and vanity. These selfish emotions produce anger, our most volatile hateful emotion. Emotions produce desires which we are compelled to satisfy using our imagination and will. Our mind prevents us from rising to our high conscious emotions and its desires. God teaches us through the Spiritual being in our right brain. Jesus called him the Spirit of Truth (John 14:16, 17). In the Gospel of Mary when Jesus preached to the crowd, he would tell them, Find that perfect being within you. The Spiritual being within possesses the knowledge of God and is at one with God. God directs his power through him. God teaches us in three stages. When we are totally unaware of him he sets up situations in our lives and gives us lessons to help us move out of our selfishness and into conscious. This stage of learning moves at a snails pace and Gods intention with it is to move us enough out of our baseness that we will become aware of the Spirit within us. When we become at least partially aware that Life is about learning, or God is giving us lessons through thoughts it expedites our learning. When we discover God and become constantly aware of the Spirit within, we move into the third stage. Whole concepts are passed to us through thought and intuition, but it is often it is often more than we can bear, and we have to shut down so we can correct ourselves. Then we can go back and learn the concept again. This last stage is our only hope to change the world, especially with the imminent destruction of the world at hand. Our minds are controlled by an evil Spirit that commandeered our will and directs our imagination. It directs our minds to imagine that what we believe has great importance. We then create an elaborate belief system to cover every aspect of life; each of us with our own unique beliefs. I believe this, well I believe that. We debate and argue our beliefs. We form confederations around our beliefs, and we are in competition with people who have contrary beliefs. It keeps us fuming in ill-tempered emotions.
