

Kaleidoscope

Kaleidoscope is a fictional autobiography of a high school girl, Jillian, who is battling a newfound love of a boy, Matthew. This book outlines Jillian's struggles through stories of her life and friends. Dealing with finding herself and deciding of her love for Matt, Jillian fights through her memories to reveal her own maturity. Being a high school student herself, the author, Jillian, easily relates to her audience. She displays her own faults as well as learning how to deal with others. Kaleidoscope is a good self-discovery book for teenagers who are trying to find themselves, or just want an easy read.
