

Not Afraid to Dream

Have you ever had a dream to play a sport and someone told you that you were too small? Well, read on and discover what one little league ballplayer did to make his dream come true. Jimmy was always told that he was too small to play baseball, but that was his dream. Jimmy sat, until one day, Johnny Johnson, who played third base, got sick, and there was only one player left on the bench-Jimmy Chase. The coach had no choice-he had to send Jimmy in to play third, and the excitement that follows is enough to give you chills and make everyone cheer for the little guy.
