

Paul, Man of the Millennia

Paul was more than a man of the hour. He was more than a man of the year or even man of the century. His greatness has propelled him through two millennia into our present day. Paul did not appear great at first. A dark cloud surrounded him, but he came out of that misery, out of the darkness, and he began to shine. His light shines brighter today than it did 2,000 years ago when he walked the earth. His life reveals the secret of greatness. True greatness is within the grasp of every one of us. Study with Dr. Lester Sumrall as he shows us the attributes of greatness which characterized Paul.
