

Peer Pressure (Pulse)

Every day situations arise that present junior highers with the chance to decide whether to stand against or give into peer pressure. This study will be unique in its emphasis upon not only the advantages enjoyed by those who stood up against peer pressure, but the painful cost to those who had weak knees. Those who stood up for godly principles will include Joseph, Hosea and Daniel. The weak-kneed ones that will be discussed are Rehoboam, Ananias and Saphira, and Samson and Delilah. A key theme will be the importance of positive peer pressure through Christian community which helps its members make good decisions.
