

The Athletics of Philadelphia: Connie Macks White Elephants, 1901-1954

In 1901, American League president Ban Johnson convinced Connie Mack to move his Western League Milwaukee franchise to Philadelphia, strategically placing the team in the same market as the National League Phillies and making the City of Brotherly Love a two-team town. The Athletics thus began their 54-year history. They won nine pennants and five World Series, yet finished last 16 times; they raided the Phillies roster in 1901, and later stripped themselves in a couple of baseballs first great fire sales; and they boasted the illustrious 100,000 dollar infield, yet were barely solvent.
