

Harold, Freddie & Milo: (frog adventure books)

Harold, Freddie and Milo and three cute frog friends with different skills and personalities. Harold is known for his intelligence. Freddie is revered for his talents and Milo isn't quite sure what he likes. The three enjoy their adventures together. Harold is very clever. He even designs a boat that is very useful for one of their adventures. The story shows children that even though the three frog friends are very different, they can work together and have fun. Readers will also discover that Harold has a natural gift that surprises Freddie and Milo. Children, parents and teachers will also enjoy the brightly colored illustrations. Small children will certainly enjoy this book. I highly recommend it. I'm looking forward to reading more about Harold, Freddie, and Milo. reviewed by children's author, Deanie Humphrys-Dunne
