

The Telltale Eggplant

Lets visit the mouse colonies of the field as they prepare for their Halloween extravaganza. Watch, as they diligently carve out their costumes. Feel the excitement as the mice anticipate the abundance of treats they will receive. Sit on the edge of your seat when they begin to enter the haunted cedar wood, where ghosts creep around and crocodiles infest the waters. Will the mice return to the field and settle for an ordinary night? Or will they brave the woods and the eeriness that lies within?
