

Runaway Aliens

Bax and Larna run away from their home on Mars and create comedic havoc on Earth. After their spaceship is captured by fisherman, the fishermen turn over Bax and Larna to the police where they escape from jail. Then they hitchhike to Area 51 to get their spaceship back. Then NASA gets F-16s on their tail where a bizarre aerial fight occurs. When they crash land in a small community in Colorado, they befriend a nice family where more trouble becomes imminent. Staying with the family for three days, until they repair their spaceship, has the police and FBI after them. The Martian police finally nab Bax and Larna, and escort them home to Mars. Then the family, after all the trouble they caused, enters their house turning off the porch light.
